

(1974 -)

Director. Born 1974

He originally hails from the advertising industry where during 2000-2007 he was copywriter for a number of agencies. Here he was responsible for, among others, creatively marketing a series of films such as 'Terkel in Trouble' (2004), 'Terribly Happy' (2008), and 'Journey to Saturn' (2008). In 2007, he went solo but continued working with films such as the Swedish-Danish Millennium trilogy and not least 'Klown' (2010).

In 2009 he founded the Einstein Film production company in cooperation with Thorbjørn Christoffersen, Kresten Vestbjerg Andersen and producer Trine Heidegaard.

He made his debut as a director with the animation feature "Ronald the Barbarian" (2011) and he also directed the childrens animation feature 'The Incredible Story of the Giant Pear' (2017) together with Jørgen Lerdam and Amalie Næsby Fick.
